

2008 Oshkosh Charity Horse Show, July 2-5

There's no better way to spend your July 4th weekend than at the 2008 Oshkosh Charity Horse show, July 2nd through 5th at the Sunnyview Expo Center in Oshkosh, Wisconsin.

This "A"-rated USEF show offers more than 100 classes for American Saddlebreds, including everything from Grand National and Stakes classes to Academy. We welcome our return exhibitors, and invite new exhibitors to experience this national-caliber show featuring excellent accommodations for both horses and guests.

Here are just some of the amenities and special events:

- Our large, beautiful arena and center ring set the stage for four days of exciting performances.
- Sample some of the fabulous sandwiches, wraps, salads and desserts available at the concessions tent. It's all prepared and served by the award-winning restaurant The Seasons, returning by popular demand.
- For the kids we offer an enormous inflatable Jump-O-Leen during show hours.
- Our Friday night exhibitor party features a truly spectacular buffet catered by The Seasons 5-star restaurant. You've never had better food at a horse show, we promise!
- What's the 4th of July weekend without a cookout? The fun continues with a Blue Ribbon barbeque Saturday afternoon offering burgers, potato salad and the works. Then join us for an ice cream social – everyone's invited!
- Private tables are available in the arena, but send your reservations in early as space is limited.

Don't miss this special event – send in your entries today! For a complete prize list, entry forms and more information, visit our web site at www.oshkoshcharity.org, see our listing at www.horsheshowcalendar.com, or contact show secretary Vicki Holston at (262) 560-9764.

We look forward to seeing you at the show.
